AGAIN THE SAME.—Our readers will remember, two or three years ago, the disgusting details and protracted length of the celebrated Curtis-Cox slander case, in which Curtis obtained a verdict of $5,000, Gox tried numerous ways to avoid the payment of this award, and finally obtained a change of venue to Brooke county, where for the last sixteen days if has been before that Circuit Court, Judge Melvin presiding. Curtis was represented by Messra, Cracraft and Good and Cox by the Cochrans and Attorney General White. The case went to the jury Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and last night at 5 o'clock came into court with a verdict of $2,000 for Col. Curtis. Messra, Cracraft and Good have been highly complimented upon their manner of conducting this case. This will likely terminate all litigation in the premises.

FOURTH STREET RELIGIOUS SERVICES.— On Monday at a meeting of the stewards, they decided to allow Mrs. Robinson, the lady evangelist, to use the audience room in which to hold her evening services. This was a wise decision and will be appreciated by the many who have been un-ple to gain admittance during the week light services in the lecture room. Per-sons attending the church are earnestly requested not to deface the church in any way (especially those using tobacco).

Monday was a glorious day, both at the faternoon and evening services, At 7:30 Mrs. Robinson preached from St. Matthew 27, 22, "Pilate saith nuto them, what shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, let him be crucified."

Her sermon drew forth the earnest sympathy of her hearers; about twenty persons responded to the invitation for prayers. For one and a hell hours all labored earnestly, by song and prayers to assist these who sorrowed in their sins into forgiveness by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

At Tuesday's meetings Mrs. Robinson lead a gracious experience meeting at 3 P. M. During the services some five or six professed full salvation. The meeting closed with a regular campmeeting shaking of hands, in which old and young joined with a reliab.

At 7:30 the church was filled to overflowing. Mrs. Robinson preached from Deuteronomy 1-2: "Seir unto Kadeshbarnea."

1. Departure of the Children of Isreal, until their arrival, Kadesh-barnea.

2. Unbellef. Repentance.

One thing that deserves special mention is the absence of excitement in the work of Mrs. Robinson. All is done with earc. No over-persuasion; no pushing or pounding religion into penitents; all is doie under a calm and cool judgment. The work is thoroughly organized. Each one has his or her work to accomplish, and are held severally responsible for its execution.

THE EXTRAMEN RESIGN.—At the last meeting of Council, the Committee on Fire Department reported to that body a proposition to pay the extramen in it $12 per month, or $144 a year, as they had complained that the pay of $50 per annum was insufficient, and would not recompense them for the damage done their clothing at the fires they attended in a year. The Second Branch passed upon this favorably, but the First Branch very wisely "sat down" upon it.

The Argus office at that time was in an old frame building which stood on the southeast corner of Twelfth and Main streats, where Gutman's clething store now stand. It was at that time a big printing office, but would hardly be seen in one of our modern offices. The printing at that time was all done by hand, such a thing as a power press was lardly known here. Mr. McLain edited the Argus for several years and was a fearless and uncompromising Democrat, being sustained by such men as Judge Thompson, James Alexander and others we dould name. John Dunham afterwards bought the office and it changed hands several times, and is now a part of the Register office. Mr. McLain after retiring from the printing office, served very acceptably for several years as a Magistrate in the First ward, when he moved to Clincinnati with his family and managed a paper there for speveral years, and removed to this city a few years ago with his aged wife to pass the remainder of his days with his children. The Junilee Concert Last Night.

But few concert troops of any kind have ever drawn such attidences on so many successful nights in Wheeling as the colored Centennial Jubilee Singers, under Mansger Gatewood, Washington Hall was again filled last night with an audience more than enthusiastic and demonstrative in approval. The only drawback to the concert was the illness of Mrs. Dougherty, who, though present, was unable to sing on account of a severe cold. The voral resources of the company are suich, however, that even so fine a voice as that of Mrs. Dougherty is compensated for by the others. So was it last night, "Marching Along," "The Ten Virgins" and "Come Out of Egypt," were of the taking new songs, but request after request was sent up for the songs they have sung again and again. The director, Mr. Thomas, made some sensible remarks at the concert, thanking the people of Wheeling for kindnesses, and saying that there were a few persons they could never repay for the interest they had taken in them. At the request of many the troups will return from Steubanyille and sing in the Opera Honse on Thursday week, February 26, in a grand farewell concert. They sing at Wellsburg to-night.

Henry Ward Beecher Asks a Question:
On Sunday, January 11th, last, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, preached to a crowd. The text was from First Timothy, vt., 10—"For the love of money is the root of all evil." "Men may say what they please about depising money, butno rational man despise it. The most rigorous saint to whom a million is left is quite willing to assume the stewardship of it. While dealing in stocks is as legitimate when stocks represent actual property as in the dealing in wool or the produce of the farm, yet gambling in stocks is not legitimate, and yet it takes place unblushingly, almost unrebukedly and increasingly. Why should not lotteries exist when churches are full of them, when cathedrals are opened filled with the most ingenious schemes, when church fares are carried on with the most unblushing games of chance, when a regiment is awelling its fonds by the most notorious of lotteries—what business have we to rise up in judgment." The 118th Grand Monthly Drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery will take place at New Orleans, La., on Tuesday, March 9th. It is for the cause of Education and Charity. For $2 you may receive $30,000. Address M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., or same person, No. 319 Broadway, New York City, N. Y.
